

como village fair

first saturday in august | wadawanuck square

The COMO Village Fair is a one-day regional time-honored tradition featuring over 50 juried crafters and artisans, classic children's fair games, prizes, face painting, local music, a used book sale, and more. The fair is free to attend. This popular community event features a fun-filled day of games, music, food, and highlights independent crafters and artisans while supporting local businesses and organizations. Proceeds support the COMO's legacy of high quality programming at affordable prices where all are welcome.
